Mission

At Tutors @ Zwartkop, our mission is to provide a calm, structured, and encouraging learning environment where every learner is understood and supported as an individual.

We are committed to offering personalised academic guidance, building confidence, and nurturing emotional well-being through small classes, caring educators, and engaging learning experiences.

We strive to walk alongside our learners from Grade RR to Grade 12, helping them overcome challenges, discover their strengths, and achieve success — not just in school, but in life.

Vision

To be a trusted learning home where every child feels safe, valued, and inspired to grow into a confident, capable learner.

We envision a future where each learner reaches their full potential through gentle guidance, meaningful support, and a love for learning that lasts a lifetime.

Primary Logo (with slogan) & Usage

This is the primary logo (with the slogan) that is considered the priority logo and should be used as a second go to. If the logo cannot be used due to size constraints, then only may you use the other logo variants that are available. The primary logo is measured by the height of the E that forms part of the slogan. As for the icon, the tree icon was derived from a free-hand sketch and was placed within a circle. Refer to the size of the circle when constructing the logo and not the tree itself.

RULES:

- Don't stretch, distort or change the proportions of the logo.
- Don't use any colours except the main brand colours.
- Always ensure a high contrast with the logo and elements.
- Don't rotate the logo, always keep it horisontal.
- Don't use this logo on image or busy backgrounds.
- Always allow for clear space around the logo.

Primary Logo & Usage

This is the primary logo (without the slogan) that is considered the priority logo and should be used as a second go to. If the logo cannot be used due to size constraints, then only may you use the other logo variants that are available. The primary logo is measured by the height of the T. As for the icon, the tree icon was derived from a free-hand sketch and was placed within a circle. Refer to the size of the circle when constructing the logo and not the tree itself.

RULES:

- Don't stretch, distort or change the proportions of the logo.
- Don't use any colours except the main brand colours.

Secondary Logo & Usage

This is the secondary logo and should be used as the third go to. If the logo cannot be used due to size constraints, then use the tertiary logo. The secondary logo is measured by the height of the T. Refer to the size of the T when constructing the logo.

RULES:

- Don't stretch, distort or change the proportions of the logo.
- Don't use any colours except the main brand colours.
- Always ensure a high contrast with the logo and elements.
- Don't rotate the logo, always keep it horisontal.
- Don't use this logo on image or busy backgrounds.
- Always allow for clear space around the logo.

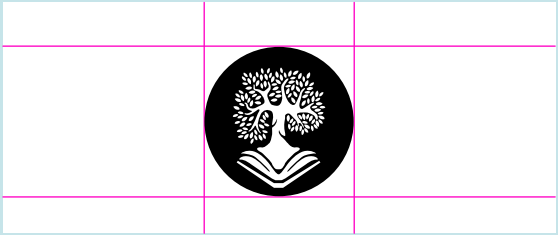
Tertiary Logo & Usage

This is the tertiary logo that is considered the lowest priority logo and should be used as a last go to. This is the logo you use for the smallest of sizes. The tertiary logo is measured by the height of the circle. The tree icon was derived from a free-hand sketch and was placed within a circle.



RULES:

- Don't stretch, distort or change the proportions of the logo.
- Don't use any colours except the main brand colours.
- Always ensure a high contrast with the logo and elements.
- Don't rotate the logo, always keep it horisontal.

Typography & Usage

Blogh

Aa A B C D E F G H I J K L M N O P Q R S T U V W X Y Z

a b c d e f g h i j k l m n o p q r s t u v w x y z

USAGE:

- Only used for large headings and within the the main logo.
- Can be used as a decorative element for brand elements.

Quicksand

Aa A B C D E F G H I J K L M N O P Q R S T U V W X Y Z

a b c d e f g h i j k l m n o p q r s t u v w x y z

USAGE:

- This is the mainly used typeface for body copy & subheadings and even some titles.
- Opt to always use this font more than the "Blogh" typeface.
- Ensure that enough contrast is taking place between the typeface and the other background elements.

Graphic Assets

Regarding graphic assets for the brand, the designer can play around with hand drawn shapes or illustrations as well as using elements from the logo itself, for example the leaves. It has to be hand drawn to convey the playfullness and down to earth feel of the brand.

It is also imperitive that the assets stick to the brand colours as much as possible to create cohesiveness throughout the brand.

When it comes to photography, it's important to keep in mind that no heavy treatment of the photos should be allowed. We want to be able to showcase the children in their natural light where they apply themselves so their natural selves can shine through.

Having photography present is very beneficial towards the brand as it creates trust and showcases what one might find when using the services.

Brand Voice and Social Media Rules

Brand Voice

The brand voice is warm, playful, respectful, and inviting. We speak to learners and parents in a way that feels friendly and reassuring, while still being knowledgeable and trustworthy. Our tone reflects a space where children feel safe to be curious, make mistakes, and grow with confidence.

We sound like a caring mentor and cheerful guide — not strict or distant, but never careless either. Our words should make families feel welcomed, understood, and excited about learning.

Our Voice Is:

• Encouraging – We uplift, motivate, and celebrate progress, big and small.
• Playful (but purposeful) – Light, fun, and engaging without losing focus on learning.
• Respectful – We speak with kindness and professionalism to learners, parents, and staff.
• Clear & Supportive – We explain things simply and patiently.
• Inclusive – Every child and family should feel seen and valued.

Social Media Rules

When posting on social media, it is imperitive that these rules be followed:

- When promoting the school, the IMPAQ logo should be present to clearly show that it is the curricuilum that is followed. This applies to captions especially, it should always be mentioned.
- Watermarks with the tertiary icon should be present at low opacity (around 30%) in the bottom right corner.
- ALWAYS get parental consent first before posting pictures of the children taking part in events/etc.
- Stay visually on brand to ensure consistency throughout the social media pages.
- Respond with warmth & kindness and be clear & helpful.
- Protect learner privacy and never share personal information without consent. At the very least, the student's first and last name, again with parental consent.
